Assalaam o Alaykum Dear students and readers,;

The course Essentials of Islamic Finance is an important course for developing understanding of the newly developed science - Islamic finance. I have gathered some material on the topic in .pdf and .doc format of softcopy. The books which have been provided as reading material are of four types:

1. Text Books:

- These books will be used as text books and major of the topics will be covered from these books. Each file name starts with the title "Text Book 0...";

2. Reference Book 01 ~ 08:

- These books will be used as secondary reading material for topics of Islamic finance. Each file name starts with the title "Reference Book 0...";

3. Reference Book A & B:

- These two books will be used as a source for preliminary concepts of Islamic law and Fiqh. Each file name starts with the title "Reference Book ...";

4. Reference Book HA & HB:

- These two books will be a source for historic developments in Islamic financial industry. Each file name starts with the title "Reference Book ...";

Other important material:

1. A folder has also been created here which contains reading material on topic of Banking, Finance, Financial market and other modern finance related topics. This material will help students in understanding of modern financial system;

I hope this material will provide a good knowledge base for you in area of academics of Islamic Finance.

Best regards,

Irshad Ahmad Aijaz
